THE LORD IS OUR HELP

There was a man named Pat and he had a complex story of rehabilitation. He was married, had a nice car, had a nice house, had a good job, and he had many friends. Once he became addicted to alcohol and drugs, his world flipped. He lost his job, and his wife filed for a divorce. His house and his car was taken from him and he found himself on the streets with nothing to lose except for his life. He was in and out of rehab many times, but none of them lasted very long. Pat had nothing, but it was in this moment where he had nothing that he thought to himself that he would go to his father who had been sober for 28 years to ask for help.

This is when he seriously entered rehab once again. Someone asked him to go to a meeting where they were reading the Big Book, and Pat found himself being described in this book. He had gone so many years and he had finally found some sort of footing in his spinning world. It was then that he gained even more stability with faith in the Lord. Pat found that his faith in God had helped him reclaim a part of himself that he had been missing when he was using and drinking.

When we go home in the evening, we may not have addictions which cause great struggles for us, but we all may sympathize that we do not always base our lives around our faith in God. Instead, we lift up our eyes to the hills looking for help. We could find ourselves lifting our eyes to the hill of drugs, alcohol, social media, video games, TV, or anything that causes us to search for a way to cope with our lives.

It is times of struggle that have us seeking harder and harder for something to fill this pit in our soul. This is why we go to the mindless activities of playing video games, looking at social media, or watching TV. Although these things are not bad on their own, we may find ourselves looking to those things or other similar activities for a way out of our own lives. We hope to find a kind of joy or endorphin high which is released when we perform these activities. We look to the hills of these things which have nothing to offer us except for a fleeting thrill.

When we engage in activities which we look to in times of need, we create for ourselves a handpicked god which is not a god at all, and we find ourselves wasting our lives on meaningless shows or videos which have nothing to do with our day to day lives. We are in need of something to fill that same God-sized hole in our lives.

Psalmist assures us that our help does not come from these other hills. On them, we find nothing lasting. Instead, when we ask where our help comes from, we can join together and say, "My help comes from the Lord who made heaven and earth."

O Lord God, You are our help in every time of need. Help us to look to You in all of our needs of body and soul. Grant us the desire to find our joy and solace in Your caring arms at all times and in all places. Guide us to reject whatever we find on other hills where we seek peace and find only meaninglessness. Help us to seek You, for You are our help. Amen.

SERVANT SPOTLIGHT

What is Stewardship?

What is a steward? Most people, when asked this question, will reply: “A manager.” That is correct, but it is only half right. A steward is indeed a manager, but he is a manager of what does not belong to him. Someone else is the owner, and the steward manages the owner’s property on the owner’s behalf.

We are God’s stewards. Our stewardship is that God has made us managers of what belongs to Him. For we have brought nothing into this world, and we can take nothing out of it (1 Tim. 6:7). Everything that we have and everything that we are comes from God’s fatherly Divine goodness and mercy. God is the owner. Not only because, as the Creator, He created all things. But also, as the Redeemer, He has redeemed, that is, purchased and won all things. It all, therefore, belongs to Him.

We are simply managers of everything in this world. Like Joseph in Egypt, we are put in charge of managing what belongs to God. What a privilege. Think about that for a minute. The all-knowing, all-powerful, all-wise God has asked us to manage His possessions on His behalf here on earth. And by doing this, He invites us to take part in the allocation of His good gifts. He wants us to give our input and advise Him in where His gifts are to be used. What a privilege indeed.

What a responsibility. For to whom much is given, much shall be required (Luke 12:48). We are not the owners. And while He puts us as managers, we are still to do with His property what He wants done with it. That means we need to know what His desire and will for His property is.

How do we know this? How can we know the will and mind of God? We find the will of God in the Bible. There God tells us what His will for all His gifts are to be used. He tells us how we are to spend our time and use our talents and treasures. He instructs us in the use of our minds, bodies, and souls.

There is nothing that we have that doesn’t belong to Him. “Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price” (1 Cor. 6:19–20). He informs us of the big picture, the overarching policy, of how we as His stewards – His managers and custodians – of His property are to do the managing.

And that is what stewardship is. It is simply doing what God wants us to do with what He has given us. As St. Paul said: “Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness” (Rom. 6:13). So, let’s dive into the God’s Word and listen to what the owner desires from His stewards.

Christmas Family Choir If you and your family have a desire to sing as a group this Christmas, why not join other families of St. Paul to lead in the Family Choir Service on Christmas Eve at 5:00 p.m. This involves a simple 2 part and 4 part with a part for children. Rehearsals will likely be the last two Sundays prior to Christmas Eve following the late service. Watch your weekly bulletin for dates. If you are interested in being a part of this fun group, please contact Greg Paul at gpaul@stpaulroyaloak.org or call him at 248-541-0613.

Advent

WHAT IS ADVENT?

The church divides the year into different seasons that emphasize the life of Christ and the life of the church. Beginning on Sunday, November 27, 2022, we will enter the season of the church year called Advent. Advent is the season of preparation and anticipation leading up to Christmas, and continuing through to Epiphany January 6, 2023, celebrated here on the 8th.

ADVENT Devotion Booklets

Each year Christians reflect on the hope God offers the world at Christmas. Born unto us—God's Son, our Savior—Jesus is the fulfillment of the Father's promise to send a Redeemer. Announced beforehand by the prophets, in the Christ Child we have the forgiveness of our sins and the hope of life eternal.

Lutheran Hour Ministries provides seasonal devotions for Advent, beginning November 27. Booklets will be available for you and your family to use during the Advent season or give one to a neighbor or friend. Invite them to worship with us this holiday season. Available for pick up in the church lobby November 20 (holiday worship schedule inside cover).

Daylight Savings Time, November 6

Don't forget to turn your clocks back on Saturday evening, November 5, before bedtime by one hour.

Young Adults is a group of post-college age to 30 something who gather together to fellowship in Bible study and events along with Historic Trinity's Young Adults group at the Atwater Brewery in Detroit on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday. For more information or if you are interested in being part of this group, you may get in touch with Craig Rinkus at craigrinkus@gmail.com.

All Saints Sunday on November 6, 2022

A service of recognition in remembrance of those saints who have gone before us this past year.

Men's Fellowship Breakfast—Once a month men of our congregation get together on the third Saturday of each month to enjoy great fellowship, breakfast and share in devotions and a Bible study. We will meet Saturday, November 19 at 7:30 a.m. in the church lounge. Bring a friend or neighbor. Plan to come and meet other new friends and enjoy a morning of camaraderie.

"Advent by Candlelight"

December 2, 7:00 p.m.
Attention women of the congregation, get your group together or just sign-up to host a table and let the women of the church sign-up at your table. This is a special night for all women of the congregation to come together and share in the love of your Lord during this Christmas season. A special program and the announcement of the Woman of the Year is on the agenda. Table hostesses will decorate their tables to the theme of the holiday and will provide special desserts for their guests. The sign-up board will be in the lobby.

Mite Box & Blessing Box Collection—Thank you to everyone who helps collect for Lutheran Women's Ministry League with our mite boxes throughout the year. Funds collected helps so many people around the world.

Also, thank you to those who donated to the special Blessing Box we had out last month. Stop by on the 1st Sunday of the month and pick up your small Mite purple and white box, then fill with coins and bring back and place in the large purple and white box. Thank you again for your generous support.

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox—We've finished collecting and now we are packaging up all the wonderful shoeboxes with gifts to be given to help celebrate Christmas for those in need around the world. Thank you to everyone who donated for this project throughout the past year. This was greatly appreciated. Watch the News & Notes beginning in January for our next year's monthly collections. Blessings, Cheryl Dirkse

Wellspring Lutheran—Child Christmas Giving

Instead of buying gifts for a boy or girl as in years past, for this year they are accepting cash or check donations only and they will purchase gifts. If interested in giving to a foster child's Christmas, please make checks payable to Wellspring Lutheran Services and put in memo line: Christmas Caring. Leave it in the church office or give it to Joline Bowdich. Also hang hats, scarf's or gloves on the Giving Tree for these children. Thank you.

Thanksgiving Joy!

During November, the first quarter of the school year will wrap up. It's hard to believe one fourth of the school year is almost finished. From Family Fun Night and the pumpkin patch field trip to math lessons and chapel services, the students, their parents, and St. Paul staff have been blessed to enjoy the fellowship of the St. Paul community and learn together.

November often leads people to think about Thanksgiving and the blessings God has given them. My family and I have experienced many blessings in our move to Michigan. From moving closer to my wife's family to being heartily welcomed by the St. Paul community, God has showered many blessings on me and my family. Whenever I ponder giving thanks to God for my many blessings, Psalms 100 comes to mind. These words remind us of God, the true source of joy and blessing.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!
Serve the Lord with gladness!
Come into his presence with singing!
Know that the Lord, he is God!
It is he who made us, and we are his;
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise!
Give thanks to him; bless his name!

Viking News Every Friday, we send home our school newspaper – The Viking. We send it home with the children and also by email. If you would like to receive the Viking by email, please make sure the school office has your email address. You may send it to strepanier@stpaulroyaloak.org

YEARLY FUNDRAISERS

Little Caesars Pizza Bar Codes We continue to collect these bar codes found on the pizza boxes. Please bring these into the church or school. If the school collects enough, they can have a pizza party on special days.

Box Tops Find and clip Box Tops from various food packages for St. Paul School! They are each worth 10¢! Our assigned coordinator, will send them in and our school gets a check! Leave them at the school in the box near the office or in the coatroom box marked box tops at the church. Thank you.
