Are You Ready For Music?

The start of the school year kicks off many ministries here at St. Paul, some of which fall under the realm of music. Perhaps you've heard this quote before: "Bach gave us God's word. Mozart gave us God's laughter. Beethoven gave us God's fire. God gave us Music that we might pray without words."

It's supposedly from an opera house in Frankfurt, Germany. Music really allows us to serve God in a unique way. Many of you are all about that every week in our worship services. I enjoy hearing you sing and feeling your energy as I lead from the organ. Some of you, however, might enjoy serving your Lord and the church by joining one of our more formal music groups. The Chancel Choir is open to all who can carry a tune and are willing to work at learning and perfecting choral anthems that bring passion and beauty to the proclamation of the Word of God. We also help the congregation learn new hymns and lead in the general singing. The group is a lot of fun, and meets every Thursday evening from 7:00 – 8:30 pm. The choir sings roughly 3x per month sometimes in the 8:15 service, sometimes in the 11:00 service. (about ½ and ½). A published schedule is provided. We are anticipating several new singers this fall. It would be a great time to start. Rehearsals start Thursday, September 5th. Let Greg Paul know if you're interested.

Another of our groups is a bit more specialized. The Bell Choir requires some music reading ability, especially helpful if one is familiar with reading piano music. This group rehearses on Thursday evenings following the Chancel Choir rehearsal. It meets from 8:30 to 9:30 in the evening. We ring three octaves which requires 11 ringers. The Bell Choir rings roughly once a month, whenever we can get the whole group together on a Sunday. This group also begins on September 5th. Again, let Greg Paul know so he can best organize the music.

There is always a need for individuals who play flute, or clarinet for accompanying choral anthems or just doing an accompanied solo on a hymn or other sacred music. Whatever you might play, let me know and we'll see if we can provide an outlet for your talent. Music does indeed "help us pray without words."

On another "note" you might have played and instrument once upon a time and have it sitting around. Consider donating it to the school so a student could use it in our band program.

MR. GREGORY PAUL
MUSIC MINISTER/TEACHER

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP—

Stewards, Called to Forgiveness

Human beings were created and redeemed to be stewards. Bearing the image of God (Gen. 1:26–28), the steward was created to reflect the Creator within creation. In a way, stewards are simply mirrors. Mirrors cannot do anything to the image that is placed in front of them.

A mirror was the first item in creation that embodied the computer term GIGO. “Garbage in, Garbage out.” In a computer, if you enter good data, you get a good result. You enter bad data; you will get a garbage result.

In photography, you can run an image through a filter, which can remove imperfections. Myriad apps allow for the option to cut people out, add people in and change backgrounds all in an attempt to make the perfect image. Mirrors cannot do that. They do not provide anything new. Mirrors are created to reflect, not process, an image. They simply reflect the person standing in front of them.

Stewards are like this. Created to reflect, a steward will reflect the God in front of them. The steward will either reflect a godly stewardship that holds that God is the owner of all things (Ps. 24:1) and is the One to whom they are accountable, or they will reflect the god of self and see the created order as something to be possessed, used, and in far too many cases, abused. It is not a question of IF the steward reflects, it is really a question of WHO is being reflected.

For this reason, the Lutheran Service Book has included a necessary hymn worthy of meditation: “Forgive Us, Lord, for Shallow Thankfulness” (LSB 788). Its first verse reads:

Forgive us, Lord, for shallow thankfulness,
For dull content with warmth and sheltered care,
For songs of praise for food and harvest press,
While of Your richer gifts we’re unaware.

This is a fitting call to repentance for every steward. Our thankfulness is so often shallow. We get comfortable with the overflowing blessings we have entrusted to us by the Lord. These trusts are so many that the steward often forgets the One who entrusts them. Worse, with so many physical trusts evident, the steward loses sight of the greatest trust: the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The failed steward sees so much plenty that they lose sight of the treasure: Jesus!

So, we confess our shallow thankfulness. In absolution, the imperfections of the failed steward are wiped away and a new image is sent into the world. We release our hold on stuff. We rethink our relationship with the created order and recall that it is all to be used FOR JESUS! This keeps the richer gifts in view, for us and for those we know and love who need Jesus.

KIDS KORNER

In a world of confusion, Jesus is the clear choice.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God." May we cling to Jesus throughout this year since Jesus is the foundation of our faith in God's salvation plan!
